Civil Ceremonies

at the Guildhall, Rochester

Conveniently located in the centre of Rochester, the charm and historical atmosphere of the Guildhall provides a memorable setting for your wedding.

Civil ceremonies are held in the Guildhall Chamber, on the upper floor of the Guildhall Museum in Rochester High Street.

The Guildhall was built in 1687. It has been used in past centuries as a town hall, entertainment venue, court and council chamber. The chamber is a fine example of 17th century interior decoration with its magnificent painted plaster ceilings. The room is decorated with large oil paintings of monarchs and local dignitaries. Chandeliers help enhance the historic atmosphere of the room.

A red carpeted, sweeping staircase leads you to the chamber entrance where you will be spellbound by the grandeur of this historic venue.

Take your vows or renew them in one of the most romantic rooms in Rochester. The glittering chandeliers offer the perfect soft ambience for every ceremony, whether it is a marriage, civil partnership or a baby naming ceremony. This relaxed atmosphere will ensure your special day will be one to remember.

Once the formalities are over why not find your perfect location for celebratory photographs in the breathtaking city of Rochester? The castle and cathedral offer the perfect backdrop for that perfect picture.
