

Swimming Pool Admission Policy for Children

Children under 4 years

Children under four years of age must be accompanied in the water by a responsible person, aged 16 years or over, on a one-to-one ratio.

Children aged 4 to 7 years

Children aged four to seven years of age must be accompanied in the water by a responsible person, aged 16 years or over, with no more than two children per responsible person.

Children aged 8 to 11 years

Children aged eight to 11 years of age must be accompanied into the facility by a responsible person aged 16 years or over.

The responsible person is not required to enter the water, but must remain within the facility and supervise the children. If the responsible person will only be spectating then an admission charge will not be applied.

Children aged 11 years and over

No accompaniment necessary.

Family sessions

Family sessions are aimed at families only. An adult must remain in the pool at all times during these sessions. One adult can only accompany up to a maximum of four children.
