What is voting?

This section explains what voting is and how it works

This section will explain what voting is and why it's important.

People with a learning disability have as much right to vote as anyone else. Don't let anyone else tell you different.

People with a learning disability should vote so they have a say about things that affect their lives.

It's important to remember that you must register to vote in order to vote.

What is a Councillor?

The people that run your council are called councillors.

They make important decisions that can affect people's lives.

For example, your local council makes important decisions that can change:

- How people with a learning disability use local services
- How services like schools, community centres, parks, rubbish collection and libraries are run.

Different councillors have different ideas about the best way to run local services.

Councillors are elected. This means people living in the area get to decide which councillors are elected to run the Council.

People call this a local election.

Councillors are usually part of a political party. There are lots of political parties.

The political party with the highest number of Councillors usually gets to control the Council and take decisions on how local services are run.

You can also vote for candidates who are not part of a political party. They stand as independent candidates.

What is a Police and Crime Commissioner?

Police and Crime Commissioners check that your local police are doing a good job for you.

They also check if the public are happy with their local police.

What do they do?

They meet with the public to ask them questions about the police. They make plans to say what the police should be doing in your area.

They decide how money is spent on the police in your area.

They hire new Chief Constables (the people that run the police).

If you live in Essex, Staffordshire, North Yorkshire or Northamptonshire you will have a Police, Fire and Crime Commissioner.

This means that the person will also make the same decisions about your local fire service as they make about the police.

In some areas with a Combined Authority Mayor, the role of the Police and Crime Commissioner is taken on by them.

You can find a list of the candidates for your area at www.choosemypcc.org.uk closer to the election.

Polling stations are often at churches, community centres and schools. However they can be in all sorts of places.

By post - If you want to vote by post you will need to contact your local electoral services team who will send you a form. You should fill out the postal vote application form and send it back to your local electoral services team. You can also print off the form at www.electoralcommission.org.uk/i-am-a/voter/voting-person-post-or-proxy/voting-post

Before the elections you will receive your ballot paper or if you have more than one election in your area you will get one ballot paper for each election.

By proxy - Voting by proxy means choosing someone else to vote for you. You need to fill in a new form to choose who will vote for you. This person can visit a polling station or apply for a postal vote in order to vote on your behalf.

Contact information
email: campaigns@mencap.org.uk
telephone: 0207 696 6009

You can print off the application form at www.electoralcommission.org.uk/i-am-a/voter/voting-person-post-or-proxy/voting-proxy

If you would like to vote by post, instead of going along to a polling station on election day you need to get in touch with your local electoral services team at your council and say you would like to vote by post.

You will be sent a form to fill in and post back to the council.

If you don't know how to get in touch with your local electoral services team you can type in the postcode of your address on the Electoral Commission website and it will give you the name, address and telephone number of who to talk to at your council www.electoralcommission.org.uk/i-am-a/voter/your-election-information

The deadline for postal vote applications is 5pm, Tuesday 20 April 2021.

Completing the Postal Vote Application

Once your application form has arrived in the post you need to fill it in.

About You

First, fill out the About You section. Your local authority may fill in some of the form for you.

Write your full name.

There are boxes to write your phone number or your email in but you don't have to fill them in if you don't want to. They are just there to help the electoral services team get in touch with you if they need to for example if there are any issues with your application.

Address

Next, fill out the address section. You will need to write the address where you live and are registered to vote.

How long do you want a postal vote for?

Fill out the 'How long do you want a postal vote for?' section.

You will need to say for how long you would like to vote by post.

Contact information
email: campaigns@mencap.org.uk
telephone: 0207 696 6009

If you would like to vote by post at all elections you should tick the box “until further notice.” That means you will be sent a postal vote for all elections unless you contact the electoral services team to say you would like to stop voting by post.

If you would rather just vote for post for one election, you should add the date for that election. Or you can pick a period of time to have postal votes. For example from 01/05/2021 and 01/05/2025.

Address for Postal Ballot Paper

Next, fill out the ‘Address for postal ballot paper’ section.

Write the address you would like your postal ballot paper or papers if you have more than one election in your area to be sent to. This is usually your home address but if you are going to be away for example on holiday you can add the address where you will be staying.

Declaration

Finally, fill out the ‘Your date of birth and declaration’. Write your date of birth and sign in the box. If you can’t sign get in touch with your local electoral services team and they can help.

Then post your form to the address provided.

Contact information
email: campaigns@mencap.org.uk
telephone: 0207 696 6009

If you can't post the form back yourself, either give it to somebody you know and trust to post it for you, or ring your local electoral services team to see if they can collect it from you or ask your electoral services team if they will accept it by email.

What happens next

Before the election, you will receive a postal ballot pack and a ballot paper or papers if you have more than one election in your area that show you who you can vote for.

The postal ballot pack will tell you where you should post it and will contain a prepaid envelope for this purpose.

You can also take your postal ballot pack to your local polling station on election day.

The deadline for proxy vote applications is 5pm, Tuesday 27 April 2021.

email: campaigns@mencap.org.uk

Voting at a polling station

This section explains how you vote at a polling station

This section explains how to vote at a polling station.

When you have registered to vote, you can vote in person at a polling station.

Before an election, you will be sent a poll card.

This card will tell you where your polling station is and where you need to go to vote.

Polling stations are often in churches, community centres and schools. However they can be in all sorts of places.

Polling stations are open from 7am to 10pm.

It can be useful to take your poll card with you when you go to vote.

When you arrive at a polling station, you will be asked to give your name and address.

If you are unsure what to do when you get to the polling station, ask the staff at the polling station – they are there to help you.

Contact information
email: campaigns@mencap.org.uk
telephone: 0207 696 6009

You can also ask someone to come along to the polling station with you to help you. For example, a family member who is over 18 or a support worker who can also vote in the same election as you are. They can also help you fill in your ballot paper. If they do this then you need to let the Presiding Officer know and the person helping you will need to fill in a form

If you don't have anyone with you and you need help filling in your ballot paper the Presiding Officer can help you. The Presiding Officer is the person in charge at the polling station.

Everyone who is allowed to vote in this election and is registered to vote can do this.

At the polling station you will be given ballot papers. These are pieces of paper with all the names of the candidates on them.

How to vote for your Councillor

You mark the ballot paper by putting an 'X' next to the name of the person you would like to represent you.

For the local elections you may have more than one Councillor representing your area and so you may be able to vote for more than one person. The instructions or the polling station staff will tell you this. You then put your ballot paper into the ballot box.

Contact information
email: campaigns@mencap.org.uk
telephone: 0207 696 6009

Voting for your Police and Crime Commissioner or Police, Fire and Crime Commissioner

There are two columns. In Column 1 you put an 'X' next to the name of the person you want to be your first choice.

You can choose just one candidate if you want. If you want to do this just put an 'X' in the first column next to the name of the person you want to vote for.

If you want to give someone your second choice then you can put an 'X' next to the name of that candidate in the second column.

Please read this carefully

If your area has only two candidates you will only be able to choose one. Also, your ballot paper will only have one column.

Once you have filled in your ballot paper fold it up and put it in the ballot box.

You can find out more about voting at the polling station on the Mencap website:
